Bible Study

Please join us for any of the Bible Studies below

Bring your friends! Bring a neighbor! Bring a family member! All are welcome to attend the Bible studies listed below, and these are wonderful opportunities to stay immersed in God's Word!

Adult Bible Class: The Book of Genesis

In the month of April, we will be continuing our study of the book of Genesis in our Adult Bible Class!

The book of Genesis is the first book of the Bible, and it tells the story of God's salvation from the very beginning. It starts with the creation of the world and the fall into sin, and from there it traces the promise of the Savior from generation to generation, beginning with Adam and culminating with Jacob's twelve children. It includes the account of Noah and the Flood, the Tower of Babel, the Call of Abraham, and Joseph's rise in Egypt. At every place it proclaims the steadfast love of God and His faithfulness in redeeming mankind from the guilt of our sin.

We hope you will join us for this study! This is a great opportunity to fill your week with God's Word and to grow in knowledge and faith!

Adult Bible Class meets on Sundays at 10:45 a.m., after our Divine Service.

Men's Bible Study Will Meet on April 10

Attention Men of St. Mark's! Our next Men's Bible Study will be held on Saturday, April 10. We will gather from 9:00 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. in St. Mark's fellowship hall. Breakfast will be provided, and we will be continuing our study of the book of Acts.

We hope to see you there! This is a great opportunity to be formed together as men of God in the image of Christ!

Christian Hope in a Hostile World

The book of 1 Peter has a lot to teach us about facing persecution as Christians. Peter likely wrote it sometime prior to the year 67 AD, and his purpose was in part to encourage the Church and proclaim the hope of Christ amid the severe trials that Christians were enduring at that time. From beginning to end, Peter's letter is filled with instruction, guidance, and comfort, by which the Holy Spirit would lead us in Christ through a hostile world.

Given our current circumstances here in America, it would be good for us to study this book closely and to meditate seriously upon it. To that end, I would like to take this opportunity to unpack one particular passage from 1 Peter, a passage that I think is especially important for us today, as we watch the world growing increasingly hostile to the teachings of Christ. Here, Peter is just beginning the main body of his address when he says:

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls (1 Peter 1:3-9).

How much there is that we can draw from these few verses! How much joy and comfort is proclaimed here in Christ, especially to those who suffer loss for the sake of His name!

Peter calls us here first to remember that no matter what the world and the devil may do to us, they cannot take away our eternal salvation. In Jesus, our inheritance is “imperishable, undefiled, and unfading...kept in heaven for [us].” Jesus died for our salvation, paying the price for all our sins. And now, “through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,” we have been “born again to a living hope.” All of this is ours according to the “great mercy” of God and it “will be revealed in the last time.” Even now, “by God’s power” we are being “guarded through faith.” In Christ, all things are secure.

And what does that mean for us? It means that we can stand confident in Christ in the face of all hostility and every loss. Here, we have no reason to be afraid. Yeah, the world may take away our job, our reputation, and our freedom. Our friends may leave us. Our family may disown us. We may even lose our life. And yet no matter how hard the enemy may try, he cannot take away the Kingdom, which is ours forever through faith. It will never perish. It will never be defiled. It will never fade. At this very moment, it is out of the enemy’s reach. In this we can be entirely confident and stand boldly, without fear.

But, even more, Peter calls us here to remember that our sufferings for the sake of Christ serve a definite and godly purpose. Namely, they serve to test our faith and to exhibit its authenticity. In other words, when we remain faithful in trials, it shows that our faith is real. This faith, as Peter says, is valuable. Indeed, it is “more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire,” for its outcome is “the salvation of [our] souls.” When we are “grieved by various trials,” we lean on God’s strength, given to us in His Word and Sacraments. And insofar as we remain faithful to the Lord, it shows the “genuineness of [our] faith,” which will “result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ.” Even more, as Peter says, these sufferings last only a “little while” and are only placed upon us “if necessary.”

And what does this mean for us? It means that we can take comfort in knowing that our sufferings for the sake of Christ are not purposeless or without limitation. While at first they might appear to be random, and at times it might seem as if there’s no end in sight, we can be sure: Even these sufferings God uses to bring about good. Indeed, they will not last long. Through these trials God tests our faith. But as soon as His purpose is complete, He will deliver and will heal.

Yeah, in this world we will face persecution. But let us keep our eyes on Christ and His promises. Let us continue to love Him, though we “have not seen Him.” And even though we do not now see Him, let us “believe in Him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory.” Our salvation is secure in Christ. God will work through our brief sufferings for our good. So, being confident of this, let us ever sing with Peter, “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ!”

This is just a reminder that once you are finished filling your Lenten Coin Holders with any amount you choose, don't forget to place them in the offering plate as you depart any of our worship services during the month of April. We will most likely send a check to Bethesda Lutheran Homes in May for the amount that was donated through the coin holders.

Lutheran World Relief sends a note of thanks

In March, we received a very nice note of thanks from Lutheran World Relief (LWR) regarding St. Mark's Thanksgiving Eve offerings that were sent to them. Below is a summary of that letter:

Dear Friends,

We recently received your gift of $140 in support of our work at Lutheran World Relief. Thank you! I'd like to share a story of the great work your gift will help support.

The letter goes on to share the story of how a village in the Democratic Republic of Congo, that was plagued with water-borne diseases like typhoid, was in desperate need of clean drinking water. Adults and children alike were becoming very sick, some even dying. With the support of donors like St. Mark's, LWR was able to put infrastructure in place so that this particular village, and others nearby, now have safe water to drink. The letter concludes:

On behalf of LWR, our partners and those we serve, please accept my thanks for your generous support and partnership. May God bless you!

*Warm Regards,
Ambassador Daniel V. Speckhard (ret.)
President and CEO*

SPECIAL DECADES

April's special decade birthday

We wish the Lord's richest blessings upon Steven Allen as he celebrates a special "decade" birthday on the 27th of this month! As always, we can't tell you which decade, but we know all of you will join us in praying that our Lord will continue to bless him with faith, peace and happiness throughout this next year.

We celebrated the baptism of Gabriella Vergin

On March 7, Pastor Vergin was privileged to be able to baptize his and Mandy's new baby daughter, Gabriella Joy, into the kingdom of Jesus. What a blessing it was to witness her baptism!

We welcome Gabriella into our family of faith, and rejoice with her family that the Lord is working faith in her tiny heart, even at this young age!

Please remember these folks in your prayers

Those shown below have lost loved ones this past month. Please keep them and their families in your prayers.

- † The Greig family as Barb Allen's neighbor's son, Jamie Greig, passed away on 3/13.

Worship Schedule

Maundy Thursday service will be held at 7:00 p.m., and will include an Individual Absolution, Holy Communion, and the stripping of the altar.

On Good Friday, April 2, we will remember the suffering and death of Jesus. This day stands as an especially solemn day, in which we reflect upon the true depth of our sin, as well as the love of Christ shown in His sacrificial death on the cross. Our Good Friday Tenebrae Vespers service (Service of Darkness) will be held at 7:00 p.m.

On Easter Sunday, April 4, we will gather in exultant joy to remember the glorious resurrection of Christ, in which we are set free. On this day we will hold two services, at 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m., in order to accommodate increased attendance. There is a sign-up sheet in the entryway to let us know what service you plan to attend. Also, there will be a children's Easter Egg Hunt between services, at 10:00 a.m.

We hope you will join us for these services, as we gather during this Holy Week to receive God's Word and remember His glorious salvation in Christ!
